Description

Experience the timeless allure of Parsival, a meticulously crafted 57-foot cruiser stern canal boat from 1987, boasting a distinctive fit-out by Shamus Walsh. This charming vessel beckons with a classic yet inviting design, set against a backdrop of nautical colours in serene blue and white.

Step into the bedroom, where a fixed double bed with clever underbed storage awaits. Two generously sized wardrobes provide ample space for your belongings, ensuring a clutter-free retreat. Large windows flood the room with natural light, creating an atmosphere of airiness and comfort.

The well-appointed bathroom features a shower, cassette toilet, and a basin with a vanity unit. A strategically placed wall-mounted mirror enhances both functionality and aesthetics, reflecting the boat's commitment to thoughtful design.

The galley is a culinary haven equipped with a 4-burner gas cooker, a 12v fridge, and various kitchen units adorned with practical countertops. A sink completes this space, offering convenience for meal preparation and clean-up while enjoying the scenic canal views.

Find solace in the saloon, where a multi-fuel stove with a tasteful tile surround provides warmth and ambiance. The cosy double sofa bed invites relaxation and doubles as a comfortable spot for guests, making this space perfect for both intimate moments and social gatherings.

Parsival embodies a carefully curated nautical theme, featuring a harmonious blend of blue and white throughout its interior. The result is a vessel that feels light, airy, and effortlessly stylish—a true sanctuary on the water.

The heart of Parsival beats with a reliable Beta Marine 38Hp engine, ensuring smooth and efficient navigation. Meticulously maintained, this boat promises not just timeless charm but also practicality for those who seek a seamless canal living experience.

Immerse yourself in the allure of Parsival, where classic design meets modern comfort on the tranquil waters. Your canal boat adventure awaits.
